ABOUT ME

As a well-rounded individual and a front-end web developer, I am highly attentive to detail, especially when it comes to creating user-responsive and user-friendly web applications. I have completed web development, including both front-end and back-end development courses, from Saylani's Mass IT Training Institute. While passionate about both front-end and back-end development, I focus on writing clean, simple, and sustainable front-end code. Through close collaboration and creative problem-solving, I strive to provide users with a seamless experience.
